Docket No. N2012-1

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE NOTICE OF INTENT TO CONDUCT ORAL CROSS-EXAMINATION OF INTERVENOR AND POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION REBUTTAL WITNESSES

In accordance with Presiding Officer's Ruling No. N2012-1/5 (January 12, 2012), the United States Postal Service hereby provides notice of its present intent to conduct oral cross-examination of all intervenor and Commission witnesses during hearings currently scheduled for admission of intervenor and Commission rebuttal testimony on June 12-15, 2012. Given the extent of outstanding written discovery responses, the Postal Service is unable at this time to identify any witnesses whom it does not intend to cross-examine. However, that may change depending on the responses to outstanding discovery.

The Postal Service presently estimates that the duration of its oral cross-examination for each witness will be as indicated in the attachment to this notice. The Postal Service will revisit these estimates as it analyzes interrogatory responses filed in the days ahead and it submits designations of written cross-examination for inclusion in the evidentiary record. As circumstances permit within a week of the scheduled witness appearances, the Postal Service anticipates filing revised estimates of oral cross-examination as an aid to the Commission and the witnesses, including notices of whether it has decided only to reserve the right to conduct follow-up oral cross-examination of certain witnesses.

In establishing the schedule of witness appearances, the Commission is encouraged to consider whether the hearings can be consolidated into three days instead of four.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
